“ The collaboration between local residents with the professional orchestra without being ‘highbrow’ was excellent and everyone could feel at home with the music. ”

“ What a wonderful and heart-warming show of unity and people coming together... music and the arts matter all the more when life throws curveballs. it shows us that there can always be a better tomorrow... ”

“ The personalities of the individuals resonated powerfully through the work, and the sense of the strength of this community. Above all - what was absolutely clear was the great significance this project had for all involved, especially within the context of the pandemic. ”
