94%

said they would take part in a similar project again

94%

said they felt included

“

It has made me feel pride within myself and the school for being able to produce something as good as this.

“

It just helped me a lot to inspire myself to be better than what I am, to be the best I am really, the best version of me.

“

The only national organisation that could have done all this was Orchestras Live because your organisation would always celebrate the most important element – the children and young people.
